This form should be used if you wish to contribute any of your tax refund to any of New Mexico's voluntary contribution funds. Total fund contributions may not exceed the overpayment amount on line 16 of the Form PIT-1 or line 30 of the Form PIT-A. If you are not due a refund but wish to contribute to any of the funds, do not mail your contributions to the Taxation and Revenue Department. You may send your contribution directly to the addresses listed below.

Please consider your contribution to any of the funds carefully, because no part of your contribution can be refunded to you should you amend your return or change your mind. The Taxation and Revenue Department will deduct your contribution from your refund amount and transfer your contributions to the appropriate funds. If the indicated contributions exceed the refund determined to be due, no contributions will be made or deducted from your refund.
